

I believe that I have a right to receive information of any sort from any venue. Stifling thje right to broacast is an infringement of the first ammendment, wether it be news and weather, or just talk and music. Don't allow special interest groups to invade my life and create an atomosphere of complete goverment control over my ability to get the information to live my life.